How-to-Use Document
for TheraComm

Prepared by

Christian John   200360001
Iden Ellia   200370502
Joe Samano   200365260

Table of Contents

1. General Information

1.1 System Overview

TheraComm is an iOS-based mobile application that allows communication between the patient and the therapist. The system is capable of implementing the core features of an email system which includes sending and deleting email messages. The system is also capable of implementing the core features of a chat system which includes creating rooms and sending messages.

1.2 Organization of the Manual

This document is divided into 4 sections:

- General Information: system in general terms and its purpose.
- System Summary: general overview of the system which includes the system configuration and user access levels.
- Getting Started: installation process and brief overview of the main screens.
- Using the System: detailed description of system functions.

2. System Summary

2.1 System Configuration

TheraComm operates on mobile devices with iOS operating system. The application requires an Internet connection in order to interact with the application. After installation, TheraComm can be used immediately without any further configuration.

2.2 User Access Levels

Only registered users are able to make use of the application particularly the patients and therapists.

3. Getting Started

3.1 Installation

The application can be downloaded from the iOS app store.

3.2 Logging In

A registered username and password is required to log in the interface.

4. Using the System

4.1 Email System

4.1.1 Main Features

4.1.2 Other Features

4.2 Chat System

4.2.1 Main Features

4.2.2 Other Features